Pi Phi Philanthropy and First Book

The February meeting was all about Pi Phi Philanthropy. Our speaker, Marilyn Whitmer, Chair of the Atlanta Alpha Xi Delta First Book Advisory Board, explained how our club can get involved with First Book and donate money that can be used to help grant books to deserving school students. She shared a video about First Book and a collection of donations for First Book was made. Everyone also brought books for the Lee Arrendale State Women's Prison library in Alto, Georgia.

Reading Angels Book Club

Reading Angels Book Club will meet on Wednesday, March 11 at Debbie Sharp's home for a lively discussion of Water for Elephants by Sara Gruen. At this time a new book will be chosen for the next meeting on Wednesday, May 13th.

If you are imaging the Reading Angels Book Club to be stuffy or overly intellectual, you will be pleasantly surprised to find that we have an informal and relaxed approach to breaking down the book and debating its relevance, or sometimes, irrelevance. For more information please contact Kathryn Spruill at kathrynspruill@gmail.com or 404-914-2079

Come help us celebrate Pi Phi and support Cindy during the luncheon. The cost is $35.00. If you are interested in attending please send your check made out to Beth Hunger by April 15th. ## Is There An Elephant In The Room?

The January meeting of the Annual White Elephant Exchange doesn't fail to be one of the most fun and exciting meetings of the year. This meeting is always a great way to begin the new year with a good time and gifts. Sandy Hanna hosted the club at her lovely home on a cold Tuesday night in January. Everyone shared in the Pot Luck dinner of salads and desserts. After a brief business meeting we proceeded to the gift exchange. This year we saw some of the most unusual items yet, from tea towels and candles to shoe inserts and vintage Pi Phi paddle lamps.
